A D V E R T I S E M E N T.

THE late Election of Burgeſſes to repreſent the Borough of LEICESTER, in the enſuing Parliament, having been very remarkable on account of the opulence of the candidates, the long continuance and obſtinacy of the conteſt, the candour with which the contending parties behaved towards each other, and the uncommon tranquility (uncommon in ſuch circumſtances) which prevailed during the whole time of the Election; it is imagined that an accurate Copy of the Poll cannot fail to become an object of public curioſity. This curioſity we have attempted to gratify, by exhibiting an Alphabetical Catalogue of the Names and Places of Abode of the Electors. All imaginable care has been taken to guard againſt miſtakes in this performance, but ſhould any hereafter appear (which in the different pronounciation of names is almoſt impoſſible to be avoided) the public may depend on their being faithfully corrected by an errata to be delivered gratis to the reſpective purchaſers. — The Editor has only to add, that he calculated this publication for more important purpoſes than to gratify mere curioſity; and hopes he ſhall receive the concurrent ſentiments of the public on this head; — but as the LEADERS of each PARTY well know how to avail themſelves of it, it would be impertinent in him to expatiate upon the ſubject.
